BANQUET PROGRAM SHROUDED IN MYSTERY

Transportation Club Committee Completes Arrangements, but They Are Guarded as Secrets.

Shrouded in mystery are the plans for the new Salt Lake Transportation club banquet, scheduled for November 12. Most profound are the secrets of the entertainment committee which is arranging the details. Out of sight and obscure is the menu which has already been prepared. The whole business is as puzzling as a mirror maze on the morning after, and the powers that be, in enigmatical hauteur, refuse to be in-

The menu for the big feed was accepted yesterday afternoon by the entertainment committee, and, according to officials at the Commercial club, who submitted the list of eats and who who submitted the list of eats and who hadn't been thoroughly coached by the railroad men in the mysterious matter, the only reason for maintaining secrecy is that if the bill of fare was to be published, the Commercial club couldn't hold the crowds that would flock from a myriad of directions. From now till November 12, everybody in Salt Lake would be in the railroad business, they say.

In addition to the good things for the inner man, there will also be an elaborate program of amusements. Arrangements have been completed with the Orpheum for a headline act and one or two extra comedians, and a special or two extra comedians, and a special string orchestra will render musical selections. Besides these, a long list of big surprises is being prepared.

During yesterday's proceedings Vance sat in the court room, betraying in his pallor and nervousness his apprehensive interest. Pure water and sewerage are absolute necessities. For thirty years or more, the city, to encourage the property owners to have these necessities, paid the cost of all water connections to curb, and for sewerage paid the cost of intersections, engineering and advertising, so that the poor people of the city could have water in their homes and keep them sanitary.

What has the "American" party done since it took control of the city? It has made us pay the cost of all sewers, including advertising, engineering, etc., and if we want to get water into our homes, we must pay the cost of all water connections. The "American" party has advanced the water rates until the city makes a profit of 100 per cent, instead of giving us water at cost, as is the rule in nearly every city in the country.

If that profit on water was used to lower our taxes we could not complain, because it all comes out of the pockets of the taxpayers, but in the face of this, they advance the general tax to fifteen mills, even on an in-In the ladies' parlors of the Commer- creased valuation of six millions of dollars,

What becomes of the immense income of $1,350,000 that the city collects from us this year? The Tribune says that $352,000 was paid for the city's share of public improvements, or about one-fifth of the city's total come for 1910. Where does the remainder go? But the city has not paid $352,000 for these improvements. If the books are examined, you will find that two-thirds of this has been paid in scrip, increasing the city's indebtedness a quarter of a million more, so that we, the taxpayers, are paying $1,250,000 for running the city, and not a dollar of this is spent on improvements. I think it is time to call a halt on these extravagant plunderers. The taxpayers should have a change. The burden is becoming unbearable, and we should not let these unprincipled grafters throw sand in our eyes any longer by appealing to our religious or irreligious feelings, or our political differences. We should get together or the city will be ruined. This municipality, with an income of $1,350,000, is bankrupt, and the city's indebtedness is increasing 20 per cent each year. This must come to an end, for the taxpayer is rapidly reaching the place where he can pay no

Dry Farming Operations Are Proving Successful to a Most Pleasing Degree.

Clinton D. Ray and S. A. Greenwood, of the Fillmore Fruit and Grain company, have just returned from Millard ounty, where they are heavily interested in dry farming projects. At the present time they are working on the cultivation of upward of 2,000 acres of land and the work will be completed just as rapidly as can be accomplished by men, teams and plows.

According to Messrs. Ray and Greenwood, fully 25,000 acres of east bench land has been taken up by Salt Lake nd Ogden people under the Smoot act nder the non-resident clause, and they eclare it has been demonstrated that he land is extremely fertile and that it is equal in every particular to the and about Nephi. Mr. Ray stated that a great deal of activity is being manifested in the section at the present time and that many eastern men are interested in the development of that portion of the country.

"Another thing that will be of great benefit to the people there," said Mr. Ray, "is the railroad. I firmly believe that a road will be run from Nephi to Fillmore. One concern has offered $25,000 to help build the road and we will give a like amount. If the railroad company will get busy, there is no doubt that the people of Millard county will raise fully $200,000 to assist in the consummation of the project. The possibilities there are indeed remarkable and the people are awakening to a realization of the fact that there are great quantities of land to be had there that, for dry farming, are unrivaled."

Ray Woods, the white woman companion of Armstrong, and Mrs. Brennan, wife of the murdered bartender, have both left the city and Patrolman G. A. Patterson, who arrested Armstrong, is in Seattle. Both testified that Szirmay carried a saw wrapped in a newspaper when he boarded and left the car.

Testimony furnished by Sheriff Joseph C. Sharp consisted of admissions Szirmay had made to various examining officers from time to time in which he had attempted to implicate a mannamed "Joe" as the burglar who had inveigled him into the plot to rob the Karrick home, and who was the real murderer of Karrick. Then the sheriff showed that Szirmay had repeatedly been caught in a lie when he accused an accomplice in the morder.
